A FIVE STAR SHOW!

The Key Stage 1 Nativity, The Inn-Spectors, ticked all the boxes for a magical performance and was judged to be outstanding. Ava Oseman agrees it was fab-u-lous!

This year, our Nativity was a play called The Inn-Spectors. I was a beautiful star and I had to blow lots of kisses to the audience. But there were lots of other characters such as Mary, Joseph, donkey, innkeepers, kings and, of course, the inn-spectors! The story is that Mary and Joseph had travelled a long way from Nazareth to Bethlehem but couldn't find anywhere to stay. In Bethlehem there were lots of inns. They were a bit like hotels, but they weren't very nice. The inn-spectors said it was untidy, covered in dust and there was only space in one inn, but it wasn't very baby Jesus was born in the stable. Three wise men gave gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh, and the shepherds brought their sheep. We had to rehearse every day and learn lots of songs - it was hard to remember all the actions. Before we started I was very nervous, but I carried on, even when things went wrong. The audience laughed quite a bit - especially when Freddie, the donkey, said he wanted a hoof spa. It was so funny! When I was in my costume it was boiling hot, but I liked it because it was really sparkly. You can see it in the pictures. We all had a great time doing our Nativity - and now I can watch it again and again on the DVD!
